

Helen Judge Arts Award

The Helen Judge Arts Award is open to Old Girls studying or practising in the Fine Arts, Arts or Performing Arts industry.

The Helen Hyslop (Judge '50, Head Girl) was a passionate artist. In 2009, she generously established an award to support Old Girls in the Arts industry.

Eligibility

This award recognises Old Girls who are either:

- Commencing their second or third year of a Fine Arts, Arts* or Performing Arts University degree, or
- Currently practising a professional career within the Fine Arts, Arts or Performing Arts industry

The 'Arts', under this award criteria, is defined as: painting, sculpture, drawing, print media, photography, design and textiles, jewellery, ceramics, and Architecture. If you are unsure if your specialty qualifies, please contact the Alumni team.*

The 'Performing Arts' under this award criteria is limited to: costume, design, props and scenery.*

Award

- Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an interview with members of School Executive.
- The total amount awarded each year will not exceed $1500.
- In each year, if there is more than one worthy applicant, the judges may choose to make more than one award. However, the total funds will not exceed $1500.
- Should there be no worthy applicants, there will be no award.

Application and Selection Criteria

- Please complete the award application form.
- Please provide a covering letter of no more than 800 words outlining:
 - How this award will help support your endeavor in the Fine Arts / Arts / Performing Arts including any specific projects, exhibitions, or activities that you are currently working on or towards;
 - How you intend to use the funds from the award;
 - Your commitment to and successes in the field of the Arts or Performing Arts so far;
 - Any community involvement, volunteer work, support or collaborations in the Arts / Performing Arts industry that exemplifies your passion and commitment to this industry.
